- To present a "European Cross-border Citizens' Alliance" at the European level, with the support of the European Committee of the Regions, to put cross-border territories at the centre of national and European political concerns.

Launched by the MOT, the AEBR (Association of European Border Regions) and the CESCO (Central European Service for Cross-Border Initiatives, Hungary)*

The first day will be devoted to cross-border territories in Europe and to the 10th EGTC Platform of the European Committee of the Regions. It will reveal their diversity and demonstrate their specific features, from Dunkirk to Bayonne, not forgetting Nice, Geneva and Strasbourg, and will discuss decentralisation, deconcentration and, above all, differentiation. The conference will feature speeches by Pia Imbs, President of the Strasbourg Eurometropolis, Christian Estrosi, President of the Nice Côte d'Azur Metropolis, Annie Genevard, Vice-President of the National Assembly, Member of Parliament for the Doubs, Roland Theis, Secretary of State to the Minister of Justice of the Saarland (Germany) and Commissioner for European Affairs, Carlos Moreno, researcher and scientific director, and Thierry Mallet, CEO of Transdev.

WHAT IS THE MISSION OPÉRATIONNELLE TRANSFRONTALIÈRE (MOT)?

The MOT is an association specialised in supporting cross-border cooperation. It was established in 1997 on the initiative of the French government. Its network brings together more than 70 cross-border cooperation actors: cross-border structures, regions, departments, municipalities, groupings of municipalities and communities, states, businesses, federations and networks, urban planning agencies, etc. Its mission is to defend the interests of cross-border territories, to establish networks between them and to provide them with operational and legal assistance. Its multi-level positioning promotes dialogue between national and European authorities and local and regional actors, to ensure that cross-border issues are better taken into account in legislation.
